Welcome to this handy guide to our routes in Hertfordshire. We run buses all over the county and into north London. Whether you're travelling for work, college, university or just a trip out, our buses will get you there with ease.

Uno is owned by the University of Hertfordshire, and has been running buses in the area for nearly 30 years. Anyone can use our buses - we are the University Bus for Everyone!

This booklet is an updated version of the September book. There have been some changes to routes X10, 614 and 653 in order to improve connections; updated timetables are included in this booklet, starting Sunday 5 January 2025. In this booklet you'll find timetables for all our main routes in Hertfordshire, along with route maps showing where our buses go. There are ideas for places to visit, too - why not try somewhere new?

We have some great value tickets too, whether you travel every day or just now and then. And don't forget to download our mobile app - you can buy your ticket in advance, track your bus live on a map and plan your journey. Just search Uno buses in your app store.

our tickets

If you're making a one-way trip, ask the driver for a single ticket when you get on. If you're coming back the same day, a return ticket is usually the best value. Pay in cash (please have the right change) or with any contactless card or device. Accompanied children under 5 travel free. Children aged 5 - 10 pay half price, and those aged 11 - 15 save around 25%. If you have a Saver Card, you'll also pay half price fares up to your 25th birthday.

unlimited travel tickets buy on the first bus, travel as often as you like - most tickets are cheaper on our app

Hatfield House

There are few more historic and idyllic places in Hertfordshire than Hatfield House with its handsome Jacobean architecture. This beautiful, atmospheric country house, set in the large Great Park on the eastern side of Hatfield, was built in 1611 by Robert Cecil.

It was here that the young Elizabeth learned that she was to become Queen of England after the death of her half-sister Mary in 1558.

Catch any of our buses to Hatfield station, just over the road from Hatfield House.

Hatfield House

There are few more historic and idyllic places in Hertfordshire than Hatfield House with its handsome Jacobean architecture. This beautiful, atmospheric country house, set in the large Great Park on the eastern side of Hatfield, was built in 1611 by Robert Cecil.

It was here that the young Elizabeth learned that she was to become Queen of England after the death of her half-sister Mary in 1558.

Catch any of our buses to Hatfield station, just over the road from Hatfield House.

Watford

There's something for everyone here, and it's easy to get to on our 602 or 635 routes. There are some great independent shops alongside the big High Street names, and a huge choice of places to grab a bite to eat or coffee.

If you're after a bit of retail therapy, try Intu Watford – one of the region's largest indoor shopping destinations, right in the town centre. Inside you'll find over 100 stores, a nine-screen cinema, bowling alley and lots of restaurants. In Watford's High Street there's lots of choice too – and a variety of events are held throughout the year. And for something a little different, enjoy a wonder around Watford's market – created from 42 shipping containers, with food, clothing, jewellery and more on offer.
