changes to our bus services at a glance

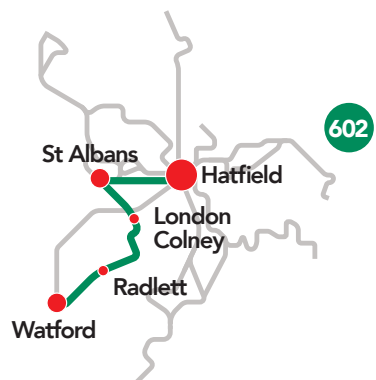

Potters Bar Waltham Cross

Following a reduction in funding from Hertfordshire County Council this will now run between Potters Bar and Waltham Cross, hourly Mondays to Saturdays.

Hatfield Potters Bar Barnet

The 243 will provide the main service between Hatfield and Potters Bar, running hourly Mondays to Saturdays.

It is part-funded from the Hertfordshire County Council's Bus Service Improvement Plan.

Hatfield St Albans Radlett Watford

This reverts to running half hourly between Hatfield and Watford throughout.

The Sunday timetable is unchanged and is financially supported by Hertfordshire County Council.

Hatfield Barnet Edgware Queensbury

There are a number of small changes to timings to improve reliability.

Hatfield Garston Watford Watford General Hospital

Buses will run roughly every 2 hours Mondays to Fridays, timed to arrive and depart around shift patterns at the Hospital.

Luton Harpenden Oaklands Hatfield

This will now run hourly, and with the Dragonfly 610 will provide 3 journeys per hour from Luton rather than 4. This is due to fewer students now travelling to and from Luton.

612 school service will no longer run, but journeys on X10 will travel via Oaklands College instead.

theshuttle

University & Angerland park and ride.

There will be a reduced service from 21-25 September, with the main service reinstated from Monday 28 September, with minor changes to the timetable.

PB1

Potters Bar local service

This was run under contract to Hertfordshire County Council, and Uno no longer has this contract, so please contact HCC for timetable information.

Hatfield House

There are few more historic and idyllic places in Hertfordshire than Hatfield House with its handsome Jacobean architecture. This beautiful, atmospheric country house, set in the large Great Park on the eastern side of Hatfield, was built in 1611 by Robert Cecil.

It was here that the young Elizabeth learned that she was to become Queen of England after the death of her half-sister Mary in 1558.

Catch any of our buses to Hatfield station, just over the road from Hatfield House.

Hatfield House

There are few more historic and idyllic places in Hertfordshire than Hatfield House with its handsome Jacobean architecture. This beautiful, atmospheric country house, set in the large Great Park on the eastern side of Hatfield, was built in 1611 by Robert Cecil.

It was here that the young Elizabeth learned that she was to become Queen of England after the death of her half-sister Mary in 1558.

Catch any of our buses to Hatfield station, just over the road from Hatfield House.

Watford

There's something for everyone here, and it's easy to get to on our 602 or 635 routes. There are some great independent shops alongside the big High Street names, and a huge choice of places to grab a bite to eat or coffee.

If you're after a bit of retail therapy, try Intu Watford – one of the region's largest indoor shopping destinations, right in the town centre. Inside you'll find over 100 stores, a nine-screen cinema, bowling alley and lots of restaurants. In Watford's High Street there's lots of choice too – and a variety of events are held throughout the year. And for something a little different, enjoy a wander around Watford's market – created from 42 shipping containers, with food, clothing, jewellery and more on offer.

Hertford

Enjoy a day out in this thriving market town where you'll find a whole host of independent shops, cafés and a rich history to explore. There's also a wide range of restaurants - from Thai and Indian to Italian or fish and chips; there's bound to be something for you.

On Saturdays there's a bustling market in the town centre with food, furniture, flowers and more. Plus, every other week the town hosts a busy farmer's market.

Our 341 & 641 routes run every hour from Hatfield or Broxbourne, and drop you off right in the town centre.
